« Big innovation, the broader shape of the forward third of the hull, frees up an unbelievable amount of space inside. We took care to make the best use of every centimeter of the cockpit beam. The elegant details and the different layouts are worthy of a much bigger yacht. »

SMART

The Oceanis 46.1 has everything you need to confidently enjoy your cruise.

Sailing the Oceanis 46.1 is extremely simple, with an inmast furling system, self-tacking jib and the all the halyards and sheets brought aft to a single winch on either side of the cockpit. Enjoy that confident feeling you get from being perfectly in control of the situation even during the trickiest maneuvers.

The Oceanis 46.1 yacht's various layouts and countless options make her extremely modular satisfying the most demanding of owners' expectations. From the swim platform or the cockpit, enjoy showing off your culinary talents at the plancha griddle built into the helm seat. With generous space inside, lift your feet and relax on the large settee with a pullout foot rest.

COMFORT

Whether you are with the family, friends or just a couple, the important thing is that everyone feels at home on board.

The shroud-free deck, the number of hand rails and easy access to the swim platform make movement fluid from stern to bow.

A single step down from the cockpit to the swim platform, equipped with a strong swim ladder, affords easy access to the sea and all its pleasures.
